

Want to expand your knowledge on credit?

FNBB's Credit Risk and Credit Analysis Training programs are waiting for you. Led by our experienced instructor who began his career in the financial services credit industry in 1992, our Credit Analysis and Credit Risk Training programs will better equip your staff with skills needed to understand credit and make informed and measured credit related decisions.

The Credit Risk Training Program is designed to be a three-day course with a beginner to intermediate level focus on credit risk. The program focuses on the presentation and explanation of basic lending concepts and includes the use of case studies to reinforce covered subject matter. The course will provide a review of:

- Accounting Principles
- Financial Statements
- Tax Returns (including the reconciliation of taxable income to book income)
- Review of Financial Ratios
- Fundamentals of Credit Risk
- Loan Structure
- Cash Flow
- Financial Statement Trends
- Guarantors
- Collateral
- Investment Real Estate
- Construction Lending Risk/Covenants

The next Credit Risk Training Class will be held in Bentonville, Arkansas on April 22nd – April 24th. The cost of the class is $900/participant for shareholder banks or $975/participant for non-shareholder banks.

The Credit Analysis Training Program is designed to be a five-day course with a beginner level focus on underwriting. The program focuses on the presentation and explanation of basic lending concepts and includes the use of case studies to reinforce covered subject matter. The course will provide a review of:

- Accounting Principles
- Financial Statements
- Tax Returns (including the reconciliation of taxable income to book income)
- Fundamentals of Credit Analysis
- Loan Structure
- Review of Background Information and Industry
- Cash Flow
- Financial Statement Trends (including balance sheet and income statement)
- Ratio Analysis
- Guarantors
- Collateral Analysis
- Risks and Mitigators
- Investment Real Estate
- Construction Lending Risk and the use of Covenants

The next Credit Analysis Training Class will be held at our office in Little Rock, Arkansas on September 21st – September 25th. The cost of the class is $1,500/participant for shareholder banks or $1,625/participant for non-shareholder banks.

For more information, please contact Frank Fugetta at ffugetta@bankers-bank.com or 225.231.5021.

Sign up for Credit Risk or Credit Analysis Training program here.